

DESERET EVENING NEWS

TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Forecast till 8 p. m. Tuesday.
Today's weather report. (Observations taken at 6 a. m. Mountain Time.)
Salt Lake City—Barometer, 29.63; temperature, 68; minimum temperature, 67; wind, south, 12 miles per hour; weather clear.
Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:
Cloudy and probably showers tonight; cooler. Tuesday, fair; stationary temperature.
For Utah: (Forecast made at San Francisco.)
Cloudy with showers tonight and Tuesday; cooler.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

A trough of low pressure extends from southern Arizona northward into British Columbia, the barometer reading lowest at Salt Lake City. Rain has fallen over Washington, at Calgary and St. Louis. Winnipeg reports a maximum wind of 35 miles from the west. Salt Lake City had a maximum of from the southwest.

L. H. MURDOCK,
Section Director.

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The actual, bona fide circulation of the Semi-Weekly edition of the News, (separate and apart from the daily) was, on the last issue,

13,000 Copies

The largest circulation of any paper between Denver and the coast. Books open to advertisers.

The following figures give the number of the Semi-Weekly News printed on the first and fifteenth of each month since the paper changed hands on January 1, 1899:

January 1, 1899	10,280
January 15, 1899	10,375
February 1, 1899	10,475
February 15, 1899	10,600
March 1, 1899	10,750
March 15, 1899	10,800
April 1, 1899	10,900
April 15, 1899	11,050
May 1, 1899	11,250
May 15, 1899	12,050
June 1, 1899	12,300
June 15, 1899	12,400
July 1, 1899	12,540
July 15, 1899	12,640
August 1, 1899	12,935
August 15, 1899	13,000

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, BAR, 60
LEAD, $4.35
CASTING COPPER 17 cents a lb.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Judge Norrell will take another outing into Idaho next week, going by rail to Spencer on the Oregon Short Line.

The Uintah State academy opens its school year on Sept. 11th. The building for the academy, which has been undergoing repairs, is about ready for occupation.

Ex-Senator Brown's eyesight is said to be somewhat improved, so that there are hopes that he will have his powers of vision restored to him, in great measure at least.

L. P. Dexter, who died in San Francisco on Wednesday evening, was a merchant in Salt Lake in the early fifties. He left this city on the approach of Johnston's army in 1857.

The Evanston, Wyo., Press tells of a visit of John P. Meekins Esq., of this city to that town, where he delivered a lecture on Thursday evening. The citizens were highly pleased with Mr. Meekins's address.

Louis Bagger & Co., patent attorneys, Washington, D. C., report that on last Tuesday Mr. Herbert Hirschman, a resident of this place, obtained a valuable patent for improvements in trolleys.

James T. Watkins, late first sergeant in company E, Sixteenth Infantry, and who resides on Paradise Alley, this city, was knocked off a Salt Lake City Railroad car yesterday and sustained serious injuries.

Marriage licenses were issued today to Howard Wentworth, of Park City, aged 23, and Lillian Miller, of Salt Lake City, aged 26; to Coral Paine Goody, of Telluride, Colo., aged 24, and Mary E. Ford, of Monticello, Idaho, aged 21.

J. S. Acker & Co., writes the "News" from Mountain Home, Idaho, that there is a splendid opening there for a good shoe and harness repairer a good steady man of family is wanted, and should communicate with Messrs. Acker & Co.

The demand for "On to Manila" continues as strong as ever. No hand-some portfolio of the war and of the part our boys took in it, has ever been produced, and it forms a beautiful ornament for any parlor or library center-table.

Rich County Round-up: Some who were "disgusted" with the campaign last fall are considering the formation of an "Independent" ticket for county and legislative offices. It is to suppress injurious partisan feeling. Quite a number favor the idea.

P. J. Burgess and S. J. Brooks of Liberty, Mo., are here looking over the country and the view going into sheep business. They are now up in Strawberry Valley. They seem very well pleased with the country, and may locate in Utah.—Payson Globe-Header.

Utah has furnished one victim to scurvy in the far North—Frank Robinson, whose death at Nootka river, is reported in today's dispatches. Mr. Robinson left this city about a year and a half ago. He started for the Ketchikan country, with the sad result stated.

Neal Howard, the Fifth ward boy who was hurt on the railway on Saturday, and who had his right leg taken off above the knee and the left one amputated below the knee, is at the hospital below the knee, and is recovering from the shock of the accident, and today was reported as having a fair chance of recovery.

George T. Burton, aged 16 years, was thrown violently from his horse on Saturday afternoon near the corner of Twelfth South and West Temple streets. The boy was riding along at a rapid gait when he collided with an unknown cyclist, with the result that he was rendered unconscious for several minutes. Beyond a severe shaking and several bruises, Burton was unharmed.

At the Idaho Inter-Mountain Fair this fall the display of fruit will again extend all below the line. The fruit men have determined to make finer exhibits than ever before, and they promise something that will be a revelation even to Idaho people. A. McPherson, the enterprising fruit dealer, is at the head of this division, and will leave nothing undone to achieve a complete success.

"Bill" White of Bartholomew's horse show, rode down State street with the procession on Saturday afternoon. When near the city and county building his loaded revolver slipped from his holster and fell to the ground. As it struck the roadway a cartridge in the weapon exploded and the bullet entered the horse's shoulder. If it had not lodged in the steel, the leaden bullet undoubtedly would have found a billet in the crowd that lined the street.

Any newdealer having on hand unsold copies of Saturday's "News" will confer a favor by returning them to this office at our expense. The local demand for the edition, containing as it does half tone pictures of all the officers, the history of the battles, its officers and those who were killed, as well as the record of Saturday's events, is causing a big demand for copies to file away as souvenirs and to send away to friends, and though an extra supply was printed, it will soon be exhausted.

Vernal Express: J. J. Thomas and Col. G. R. Squires, of Salt Lake City, representing the Grand edge of the Independent, the Grand edge of the Independent, the Grand edge of the Independent, are here on an official visit to Vernal lodge No. 24. Mr. Thomas is secretary of the State board of equalization and had business to transact with the county commissioners, clerk and assessor. The gentlemen are also looking up some of the many resources of our county and it is rumored that they may report favorable on an irrigation proposition.

John Hagman, the well known tailor, 170 south State street, had a narrow escape on Saturday afternoon. George Oswald, the shoemaker, and a couple of friends, were on their way to the tailor shop. Suddenly the improvised cannon succumbed to the strain of an extra charge of gunpowder and pieces of iron went flying through the plate glass window, two wooden partitions in the store, and right across the spot where Mr. Hagman's head had been but a couple of minutes previously. Two children of tender years also had narrow escapes from being hit by the hurtling fragments of iron.

ZION'S SAVINGS BANK and Trust Co., the oldest and largest savings bank in Utah, pays 4 per cent interest on $1 or thousands. Start an account.

UTAH COAL.
Castle Gate and Winter Quarters, Lump, Nut and Slack.
Anthracite, all sizes, $3.50 to $4.00 per ton, delivered at the mine.
73 South Main. Telephone, 429.

UTAH COMMERCIAL AND TRUST BANK
Interest paid on savings. Francis Armstrong, pres., P. W. Madsen, vice-pres., J. E. Caine, cashier.

BANNER FOR G. A. R. BOYS.

Mrs. Nettie Palmer and other ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps of the Maxwell post G. A. R. are getting out a beautiful banner to present to the G. A. R. boys on the big field day of the soldiers on Wednesday. The banner is made of white and blue satin—the reverse of which is in white, and is surrounded by a blue scroll—and the reverse in blue satin with the words "Presented by George H. Maxwell, W. R. C. A. 23rd, 1899." The whole is edged with gold fringe and mounted on heavy poles. Mrs. Palmer, who is an indefatigable worker in the interests of the G. A. R. boys, is the originator of the idea.

AT THE RESORTS.

AT LAGOON.

The employees of the Rio Grande Western had an outing at Lagoon on Saturday afternoon and evening, the time being spent in bicycle and novelty races, which afforded amusement for the big crowd assembled there.

The contest opened with a ten mile bicycle race run between Bountiful and Lagoon. E. Mitchell and D. Ralls starting at scratch and W. Haymore, L. Crockett and W. Mitchell receiving thirty minutes.

W. Mitchell won the first prize—a nickel-plated bicycle lamp—E. Mitchell came second, Crockett third, Haymore fifth and Ralls last. In the tub racing contest which followed Elsie Ralls won the first prize—a box of cigars—and R. Mitchell three gallons of wine.

The fat men's race was won by W. Chatterton, a local legged race by Charles Peron and R. Mettelli; girls race by Gertrude Flagel; men's race by F. Grans. A prize was awarded George Boyd, the oldest employee of the company and a member of the "Mormon" Battalion, the award being in the shape of an oak rocking chair.

The oldest couple on the grounds—Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, aged 65 and 62, received a ton of coal. John Thomas, who has been employee of the company for the longest period of time, received an easy chair. In the baby show for which there were eighteen entries, Mrs. Hetty's baby received first prize, in the shape of a baby carriage. The winning was pleasantly spent in dancing.

A large crowd went out to Saitair Beach yesterday, and the 2,000 pleasure seekers had an unusual treat in listening to the select program of music rendered by the Cincinnati Enquirer band, which arrived in Salt Lake Saturday and was sent out by John R. McLean, the proprietor of the Enquirer.

This band is one of the famous musical organizations of the East and well deserves the reputation. It has completed successfully in several prize competitions, the last one being at the St. Louis Exposition where it carried off the prize of $1,000 from thirty other bands.

There are about twenty artists in the present visiting organization—and though this does not comprise the full number of the home band—it cost the Enquirer $5,000 to get the band together for the excursion.

A number of people enjoyed a bath—though the atmosphere was somewhat too cool for comfort.

DROVE OFF A BURGLAR.

He Enters Mrs. Dr. Barney's House, but Retires Before a Paperweight.

The residence of Mrs. Dr. Barney, 24 North Temple street, was entered this morning by a burglar, who gained admission by means of a window in the basement. At 5 o'clock this morning Mrs. Barney, whose sleeping room is in the basement of the house, was awakened by having the mattress under her head raised by a man's hand. Opening her eyes she saw the intruder standing by her bedside. Screaming for help, she ordered the burglar to leave his residence, and to tell her not "to make a noise." At this Mrs. Barney laid hold of a paper weight lying conveniently at the head of the bed, and pointing it at him, threatened to shoot. Evidently thinking she was armed with a revolver, the burglar hastily took his departure.

On looking about, Mrs. Barney found evidence of his entrance and search of the premises, in bits of burnt paper with which he had evidently guided himself about the house. Fortunately, nothing was stolen, and the burglar is now being sought by the police.

The occurrence should be a warning to Salt Lake citizens to be on their guard against the depredations of the house-breaker, who is now in considerable numbers.

WAS JIM MALIN
SANDBAGGED?

Struck Last Friday Midnight by an Unknown Man.

LIES AT POINT OF DEATH.

Nightwatchman on Commercial Street Warned His Assassin, and the Latter Man Disappeared.

James E. Malin of 563 south Eighth East street, this city, whose injury was noted in Saturday's "News," lies apparently at the point of death. He has not regained consciousness, except for a few moments yesterday, since he was struck senseless last Friday night, on Commercial street. With a number of friends, Malin was going about town on the evening before the return of the volunteers. He had been drinking, and was nervous and unsteady.

About twelve o'clock, as reported by an eye-witness of the affair, Malin sauntered along Commercial street in company with a younger man named Phil Jalin, a relative. They happened to meet a group of men, and apparently Malin, who was in the lead, turned to the right and walked into the rear of a man or woman who would go as did he. Pray always and give to the poor, send to Joppa and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God in heaven. You may not receive the answer in the way you expected, but it will be God's will, therefore, do not try to understand revelation. We must seek the spirit of revelation. There is not an Apostle, Priest or Bishop in all the Church who can attempt to understand between a man and his God. But individual reliance upon their maker was taught to the people. Ask God what He would have you to do, and you will find an Ananias, or one who will be answered as sure as there is a God